CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Standard Bidding Document (SBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.
- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.
- 3 Treasury Regulation 16A9 prescribes that accounting officers and accounting authorities must take all reasonable steps to prevent abuse of the supply chain management system and authorizes accounting officers and accounting authorities to:
 - a. disregard the bid of any bidder if that bidder, or any of its directors have abused the institution's supply chain management system and or committed fraud or any other improper conduct in relation to such system.
 - b. cancel a contract awarded to a supplier of goods and services if the supplier committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of that contract.
- 4 This SBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (SBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.

APPOINTMENT OF A SERVICE PROVIDER TO CURATE SOUTH AFRICA'S PARTICIPATION IN THE 58TH INTERNATIONAL ART EXHIBITION IN VENICE FROM 11 MAY 2019 TO 24 NOVEMBER 2019

1. INTRODUCTION

The National Department of Arts and Culture (DAC) is seeking to appoint a service provider to conceptualise and curate the South African Visual Arts Exhibition at the 58th International Art Exhibition in Venice from 11 May 2019 to 24 November 2019 in line with Biennale Foundation requirements and prescripts.

2. BACKGROUND

The Venice Biennale is the oldest most prestigious international Art Exhibition in the world. Over 20 countries participate at this prestigious platform as part of promoting and creating international exposure and market access for their artists. In line with the Department's strategic outputs to develop and promote the cultural and creative industries including the Mzansi Golden Economy (MGE)'s strategy to stimulate the supply and demand, South Africa has been participating at the Venice Biennale since 2011 after a long absence in the international platform.

The Board of La Biennale di Venezia approved the appointment of Ralph Rugoff as Director of the Visual Arts Sector, with specific responsibility to curate the 58th International Art Exhibition to be held in 2019.

Ralph Rugoff has been the Director of the Hayward Gallery of London since 2006. Opened in 1968, the Hayward Gallery is considered one of the most leading public art galleries in the United Kingdom; it is part of the Southbank Centre, Europe's largest arts centre that receives major funding by the Arts Council of England. Rugoff was the Artistic Director of the XIII Biennale de Lyon in 2015 titled La vie moderne.

Biennale President Paolo Baratta stated that "the appointment of Ralph Rugoff confirms the Biennale's primary goal, to qualify the Exhibition as a place of encounter between the visitors, the art and the artists. An Exhibition engaging the viewer's directly with the artworks in such a way that memory, the unexpected, the possible provocation, the new and the different can stimulate their visions, their minds and their emotions, and offer them the opportunity for a direct experience."

South Africa’s participation this year should respond to the Venice theme of the emphasis on the important role the exhibition plays in bringing art, artist and viewer together. Rugoff’s role, as the Chief Curator of the Biennale is to ensure that the various countries respond to the overall theme of the Biennale as a platform. The allocated space for the South African Exhibition is in the Arsenale, Sale d’Armi building D- half portion of the first floor overlooking the basin. The floor space is approximately 250sqm with floating oak board floors, spotlight tracks and exposed brick walls. The floor plan is attached as Annexure A. The Biennale Guidelines will be provided to the service provider once received from the Biennale Foundation in September.
